CAPTAIN UANOT,

UTHOR OF THE GREAT BOOK JUST BE-ING PUBLISHED, SPEAKS of HAMPTON'S GREAT CURE OF REMUMATISM CONTRACTED

UNDER TROPICAL CLIMATES. BALTIMORE, Md., June 4, 1854. Mr. Bockbridge, of the Fountain Hotel, Light street,

Dear Sir : Being on the point of leaving the city, I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me four bottles more, to carry on my voyage. Hince I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Veregratitude to the proprietors of said medicine, I beg you to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rheumatic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my li ubs, you can appreciate nearly as well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommends tions I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be sp proved by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific, took this medicine with reluctance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable

You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray Vegetable l'incture, as it has cured me in five weeks of a chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven years' periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning o their former natural appearance.

I have been under the treatment of several phy sicians in London and Paris, without any apparent benefit; also, while in New York, having tried the Thompsonian and Homospathic remedies, after hav ing been tormented with galvanic ba teries, cold and aromatic baths, and hundreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect, I am, so far, cured by this Hampton's Vege able Tineture only Therefore, my car sir, accept of the assurance of my gratitude, and believe me your well wisher. THOMAS CARCY.

RMV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N. PORTSMOUTH, VA, Aug. 18, 1851. Mr. J. E. Boush—Pear sir: White I am, in genera', opposed to patent medicines, candar com; els mo to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family; and in dy pepsia, loss of appetite, disziness, and general de-bility, with entire success. So far as my experience extense, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESERIDGE,

"I had a dream last night; I stood at the gates of Paradise; within the gates was St. Peter dangling his keys. While I was waiting to take my turn there came up three hundred British soldiers. who begged admittance, as they had died at Alma fighting for their country. St. Peter referred to Lord Raglan's dispatches, and finding the soldiers' tale to be true, let them in. Next came three hundred French soldiers, who also begged admittance, as they had died at Alma fighting for France and their emperor. St. Peter turned over the file of the Moniteur and passed the Frenchmen through the gates. Next came up a thousand Russian soldiers, who begged admission into Paradise, for that they had died in the Dobrudscha, fighting for the Czar, under Prince Gortschakoff, against the infidel troops of Omer Pasha. But St. Peter shook his head as he held up the Invalide Russe, containing the dispatches of Prince Gortshakoff, in which the loss the Russians was described as insignificant. 'Go,' said St. Peter, 'I have admitted the British soldiers, for I find their names in Lord Raglan's dispatches. I have admitted the French for I find their names in the Moniteur; but Prince

Gortschakoff says nothing of your death. You are imposters, and can have no place in Paradise.' And so I saw these poor Russian soldiers wander away, outcast and forlorn, and it seemed to me they were doomed to wander foreverr When I awoke, I resolved to endeaver to conciliate my duty to the emperor with my desire to gain admittance for our seldiers

> THE LAZY TURK .- The Turkish soldier is an industrious laborer in the trenches: he digs a few minutes, gives a grunt, and then sits down. A very vehement and zealous commanding officer of a distinguished fusileer corps was the other night in the trenches when the Turks were digging; and, seeing one rather more idle than the rest, gesticulated violently at him, and induced him to work a little. Johnny, however, soon give in, and on to Satan, Christ Jesus has become the truth. By him all false systems of faith have been removed, and we are brought to perceive clearly the means of our deliverance from error and introduction into a true, scriptural, and spiritual economy, adapted to the wants of needy sinners, and satisfying the utmost desires of our immortal natures. Yea, he has removed the ruins of Eden, and by the comeliness influence of the wicked one, reject all information concerning a subject worthy not only of serious reflection, but one which should engage all our powers, our hearts, our minds, and our souls-in the full and earnest investigation of its profound depths-its real and personal application to ourselves.
